

*One day I discovered that my mum also wrote her name in other people's hearts.
That made me feel happy. I am not alone.*

Spot the Difference

Sammy loves to discover things that he has not seen before. Do you remember what Sammy discovered on this page of the book?

Sammy is very observant, and that is why he is also very good at playing "Spot the Difference". Help him to find the differences between these two pictures! How many can you find?
