

When I remember my mum or I talk about her, when someone tells me stories about her or shows me a photo, her mark inside of me shines strongly and does my heart good.

The Journalist

Sammy loves to pretend that he is a pirate; you already knew that. But maybe you didn't know that he also enjoys playing at being a journalist or an investigator. The thing is that Sammy is full of questions about his mother; there are so many things that he wants to know. He loves to ask his grandparents, his uncles, his father and his mum's friends about her, the things that she liked, her favourite music, the food she liked most, and also about the games that she and Sammy played together when he was small. He writes all of this down in a notepad, and keeps it in his memory box.

Would you like to play with Sammy and pretend that you are a journalist as well? Sammy can lend you the list of things he put together, or you could make a list yourself if you prefer.

Name of the Journalist:

Name written in your heart:

Photo of this person:

Their Nicknames:

Their date of birth:

Their Parent's names:

Their Brothers and Sisters:

Their Children:

Their Nephews and nieces:

Their Eye Colour:

Their Hair Colour:

The prettiest feature in her/his face:

Their Favourite Colour:

Their Favourite food:

Their Favourite dessert:

Their Favourite drink:

Their Favourite treat:

Their Favourite Songs:

Their Favourite books/authors:

Movies that she/he really liked:

Their Favourite actors/actresses:

Songs that remind you of this person:

Favourite spots/rooms in the house:

Schools that she/he attended:

Things that she/he studied:

Things that she/he was interested in:

What were they good at:

Any strange abilities?:

Her/his virtues:

Their Favourite Sports:

Things that she/he liked to do in her/his spare time:

Things that you both enjoyed doing together:

Important people in her/his life:

Their Best friends:

Their Favourite animals:

Their Favourite Football Team:

Their Favourite Games:

Mermorable Holidays:

Places in the country that she/he went to:

Places in the world that she/he visited:

People that she/he admired:

What was a typical day in her/his week like?

What would her/his ideal weekend look like?

Her/his beliefs:

Typical Phrases:

Special moments in her/his life:

Topic that she/he could go on and on talking about:

Things that would make her/he laugh:

Funny anecdotes:

Something nice that she/he did for others:

Things that people admired her/him for:

Things that you miss:

