

*It comes with me everywhere. Now when I am small and also when I grow really old.
In every moment of my life, her love will be there with me.*

Treasure Hunt at Home

Sammy loves to go on treasure hunts. Sometimes he is the one that organises them; other times he prefers to do the searching. He likes to hide some pictures based on characters from his book (see below) around the house and give clues to his family or friends to find them. The picture of the heart is the most important one of all. He hides that one somewhere that reminds him of his mother.

Would you like to play with Sammy?

- 1) Cut out the pictures below.
- 2) You can write down the name of your loved one on the heart if you would like.
- 3) Hide the pictures around your house or ask someone to hide them for you. If you like, you can give clues or say "cold" if the person is far away, "hot" if they are close.
- 4) Look for them and have fun!
